

Vogelsang:Background information on the expanded management team*Detlef Ruhmke and Michael Brinkmann*Detlef Ruhmke: Broad expertise with diverse skills

In his position as Chief Operation Officer (COO), Detlef Ruhmke is responsible for procurement, production, logistics and quality management. He also manages the Health / Safety / Environment, Industrial Engineering and IT / Data & Systems divisions. With Ruhmke's many years of experience, Vogelsang is further expanding its expertise in the industrial sector. Ruhmke: "I've found working in the Vogelsang team very rewarding so far. I look forward to working with my fellow managing directors on further innovative solutions for the future and continuing to drive the company forward in close cooperation with everyone."

Before joining Vogelsang, the graduate engineer worked in leading positions in maintenance, development, purchasing, production and sales in international companies. Most recently, he was responsible for "Strategy, Sales and Logistics" at a medium-sized sheet metal processing company.

Michael Brinkmann: Dovetailing of sales, service and back office

As Chief Sales Officer (CSO), Michael Brinkmann is responsible for the strategic development of Sales, Service and Back Office. Under his leadership, these divisions will be even more closely interlinked. The aim is to further improve internal communication and cooperation between the three departments and to optimize customer service processes. "With the closer linking of Sales, Service and Back Office, what belongs together is growing together under my leadership," says Michael Brinkmann. Further: "I'm looking forward to working together and to inspiring our customers with our innovative products together with my team."

Before his appointment to the Vogelsang management board, the qualified mechanical and industrial engineer worked as head of the transportation technology segment at Vogelsang. He originally comes from the agricultural machinery sector and has many years of experience in international sales.
